

Adam El Mihdawy Wins at Tres Marias in Morelia, Mexico

14 May 2012

American Adam El Mihdawy, won the seventh edition of the International Tennis Future Paul Arroyo held at the beautiful Tres Marias Golf Club in straight sets 7/5 and 6/1 over the Frenchman Antoine Benneteau.

With a capacity crowd in the stands, both players fought hard for 1 hour and 40 minutes with temperatures spiking to nearly 100 °F. The highlight of the match came in a tough fought first set. Throughout, El Mihdawy successfully showcased his arsenal of weapons, including his powerful serve, his backhand, control and consistency of play at critical moments.

Benneteau the previous week in the Guadalajara International Open 2012, beat El Mihdawy in a hard fought final 6/7 (4), 6/3 and 7/5. But in Morelia, it was El Mihdawy's turn to hold the winner's cup.

El Midhawy joined Loriet in the Spring of 2012. To find out more about him and other Loriet players visit www.Loriet.com
