

LORIET PLAYER ACTIVITY

Jennifer Elie of the USA in Loriet for the CITI OPEN

August 2012 – Washington D.C.

At the CITI Open, Jennifer Elie faced some formidable opponents. After a hard fought qualification round, and a heart pounding doubles loss in a super tiebreaker against the number 1 seeds, Elie returned to the court to face Vania King also of the USA and a tournament favorite, ranked 55 in the world. Elie played a competitive match with King moving on with a 6-3 6-4 win.

Throughout the tournament Elie wore the Loriet Marbella Performance Dress in white and pink, as well as the Marbella Performance Top paired with the Valencia Performance Skort.

Elie's fashionable apparel catered to her on court grace and ferocity without losing practicality. With square cut necklines that offer a flattering shape, the Marbella Performance Dress the Marbella Performance Top both have comfortable and sporty built-in support, perfect for high performance activity on the tennis court. With breathable fabrics, all of the items worn by Elie are enhanced for mobility and function.

Pictured: Marbella Top, Valencia Skort