

5th Annual TABC PLAY FOR PINK AT THE SHENOROCK SHORE CLUB RYE, NY – July 23, 2009

The Shenorock Shore Club hosted its TABC (Tennis Against Breast Cancer) Play for Pink Charity Event on July 23, 2009. The event included on court activities and a silent auction made possible through the generous support of donors, sponsors and event organizers.

Participants enjoyed a great day of tennis and fun while raising awareness and support for the fight against breast cancer. Founded by Maureen Rankine in 1993, TABC is dedicated to collaborative fundraising efforts with several organizations, to raise awareness and support for the fight against breast cancer, through tennis and sporting events.

For its third consecutive year, Loriet Sports provided apparel for participants at this event as a longtime partner of TABC. Visit www.tennisabc.org to donate or find out more about TABC events.
