ROMAN BORVANOV CONTINUES TO POST IMPRESSIVE DOUBLES RESULTS

July 2013 - Medellin, Colombia

Loriet Player Roman Borvanov has taken his doubles game across three continents and has displayed strong doubles results throughout. Roman started his doubles domination in February, reaching the finals in Mexico with fellow Loriet player Adam El Mihdawy. Roman followed that up with a win in Mexico with partner Christopher Diaz-Figueroa. In May, Roman and his partner Vahid Mirzadeh made it to the finals of Guatemala. Roman followed this up by reaching the semi-finals in both El Savador and Florida.

In June, Roman went on to become doubles champion in two tournaments, one in Indian Harbor Beach, FL and the other in Canada, both with Milan Pokrajac. With Pokrajac, Roman also made it to the Finals of another tournament. Roman finished off July capturing the doubles title with Emilio Gomez at the Medellin Open 6-3 7-6 with a win over Barrientos and Struvay of Colombia.
