The 2016 tennis season is wrapping up but not without a strong showing from the Loriet Pro Team. Playing tournaments in Hawaii, Colombia and the United States, this week Team Loriet is in the main draw of 3 tournaments.

This month we welcome Ingrid Neel to the Loriet Pro Team. Ingrid is in the main draw doubles at the Hawaii Open. Earlier this month, Ingrid won the doubles in Scottsdale, AZ with fellow American Taylor Townsend.

Adam El Mihdawy is in Medellin, Colombia where he is playing both singles and doubles main draw.

Gonzalo Escobar made it to the doubles finals of the Bogota Challenger with his partner Ariel Behar.

Peter Nagy achieved his career high singles ranking on Oct. 31, and is working hard preparing for 2017.

Nika Kukharchuk, Steffi Carruthers, and Maddie Kobelt all represented Loriet in Nashville, TN at Vanderbilt University. Fighting through the qualies, Nika and Maddie made it to the main draw.

Maddie Kobelt and her doubles partner Catherine Harrison (USA) took the Nashville Open doubles title, beating Krawczyk and Olmos in the Final.
